LAST MAN STANDING

WAS IT MURDER, or MISHAP?

Everyone has a theory, but what really happened?

Robin Bowles, known as 'Australia's True Crime Queen', will be speaking about her new upcoming book 'Last Man Standing'. This evening will be about the sleuthing and speculation that surrounded the deaths of Carol Clay and Russell Hill in Victoria's High Country. We first met Robin when Helen Cross introduced herself at a motel in Dargo. Little did we know her reason for being in the area at the time but we do so now as that is where the unfortunate couple's remains were found. Robin has just completed her fifteenth book which is about her investigation of this highly controversial case, which has had more tongues wagging than the 'Mushroom Lady'.

She will share her almost three-year journey about writing and digging behind the scenes.

The verdict is in, but the Jetstar pilot Greg Lynn still sits in remand, awaiting his fate.

Robin will be happy to answer questions and you will be able purchase a discounted, signed copy of her book.
